Harvard Votes Challenge

The Harvard Votes Challenge is a university-wide non-partisan initiative working towards 100% eligible voter registration, engagement, and turnout across all 12 degree-granting Harvard schools and beyond. Created by students, administrators, and faculty members in 2018, the initiative is coordinated by the Institute of Politics and the Ash Center for Democratic Governance and Innovation at the Harvard Kennedy School. Through a diverse coalition of students, staff, and faculty from across the university and creative organizing, we strive to institutionalize voter readiness and build a culture of full participation in all elections.

Voting at Harvard

PRIORITY Voting is often seen as an extracurricular student activity — our goal is to make participation an institutional priority in which everyone has a role.

CHOICE If students live on campus or consider Cambridge their most recent home, they can register to vote on Campus. If away from home for school, students can also vote by mail (absentee).

PARTICIPATION Only 1/2 of eligible students vote at our institution priding itself on civic leadership. Fortunately, our culture is changing. Harvard student voter turnout increased from 22.4% in 2014 to 48.6% in 2018, ten percentage points above the national average and on par with presidential election turnout in previous cycles. If we double again, we can hit 100% engagement. Participation translates education into action. Voting as a student is a proven pipeline into lifelong civic commitment and engagement.

CULTURE Since many students University-wide vote by mail, there are barriers (moving deadlines, stamps, multiple step processes, etc.) that can make voting difficult for students. Our goal is to build a culture of engagement, while mitigating these barriers, to push forward participation. Becoming voter-ready as early as possible is critical.

Voice & Tone

REGISTRATION-ENGAGEMENT-TURNOUT

When talking about voting, be sure to focus on the three core components of voter readiness: registration, engagement, and turnout. In 2018, 75% of eligible Harvard students registered to vote while only 48.6% cast their ballot, creating a turnout gap. We request communications include all three components instead of saying solely “voter registration.”

NON-PARTISAN

Voter engagement is non-partisan. Per the Higher Education Act of 1965, universities must make a “good faith effort” to provide voter information to students.

HVC is a non-partisan organization. We do not endorse parties or candidates or tell people how to vote. Helping people vote is non-partisan!

INCLUSIVE

The Harvard community includes many ineligible voters, such as international and undocumented students. We want to acknowledge that casting a ballot does not apply to everyone in our community while also underscoring that everyone, regardless of eligibility, is impacted by elections and has a role to play in getting out the vote.

We encourage using language such as “If eligible, check your voter registration” AND “Even if you are not eligible to vote, reach out to friends and ask them to check their voter registration status. Elections affect all of us.”

DOWN BALLOT

Elections at all levels are incredibly important. Encourage students to research all candidates and elected offices.

Do’s

- ? Ask voters what issues or communities are important to them
- 🎉 Celebrate voters on taking this important action
- ⚙️ Clearly explain all of the steps they will need to take in order to cast a ballot
- 📔 Share your civic experience: document your voting process (from requesting to submitting your mail ballot), share why voting is important to you, and celebrate taking civic action
- 😃 Make voting sound fun and important

Don'ts

- 🙁 Make voting sound difficult or like a chore
- ☹️ Shame voters for their past actions
- 🙁 Make assumptions about an individual’s voting history, knowledge about the voting process

TEAM RECRUITMENT Customize these messages and share it with your community!

There’s less than 100 days until the election, and [insert school or campus] is excited to be part of Harvard Votes Challenge’s effort to increase voter participation across campus. Stay tuned to find out how you can participate!

The Harvard Votes Challenge is working to ensure every eligible student casts a ballot. The work of Harvard Votes Challenge would not be possible without the massive collective effort of volunteers, team members, stakeholders, and, of course, organizers. Sign up to take action!

‘WHY I VOTE’ CAMPAIGN The Harvard Votes Challenge is running a continuous “Why I Vote” social media campaign. We are encouraging members of the community to share their voting story on social media.

These stories can focus on an issue you are particularly passionate about, an event that made you realize the power of voting, the importance of youth participation, or a simple story about the first time you voted.

Take a short, casual video of yourself talking about why you are voting matters to you on your Instagram story, but a photo with text is great as well.

We hope that everyone can fill out a quick template with the date of their next election, etc. and challenge three friends to post their stories, too.

Faculty | Administrators | Students

✔️ Post a video or photo of yourself talking about why voting matters to you on your Instagram story and tag @harvardvoteschallenge

✔️ Repost our post (@harvardvoteschallenge) and encourage others to share their stories!

Campus Organizations

✔️ Post the blank 2020 READY template on your story

✔️ Encourage your leaders/board members to share their stories. They can post on their personal pages and tag the organization page, so the page can repost.
